

Brock Tutt

----- presents -----

Umbarra (Black Duck)

An energetic showcase of Koori culture from the Yuin Nation of the South Coast of NSW.

THE PERFORMANCE

Professional dancer and cultural presenter Brock Tutt presents this dynamic programme for Primary School students. Drawing on his understanding of culture, Brock introduces students to the music, dances and languages of the Yuin Nation. Featuring an impressive demonstration of the oldest woodwind instrument in the world (the didgeridoo) and the patient teaching of both language and dances, this performance also includes insight into Brock's exciting career as a contemporary Indigenous performing artist.

Suitability: Years K-6

Duration: 50 minutes

Cost: $4.50 GST N/A per student

Minimum Fee: $450 GST N/A (100 students)

Every student over 100 pays $4.50 per head

Preschool Performance – Flat rate $300 GST N/A (for a maximum of 40 children)

BROCK TUTT

Brock Tutt is a young Yuin man (South Coast NSW) who is passionate about the preservation and sharing of cultural knowledge. He has been mentored and trained by many respected leaders in the community including Matthew Doyle. As a dancer and presenter Brock has worked with Muggera Cultural Enterprise and has performed at many prestigious events throughout Australia and overseas. Performing highlights include: the 2018 State of Origin final, Dance Rites at the Sydney Opera House, the Boomerang Festival (at Byron Bay Blues Fest) 2018, the 2017 and 2018 NRL Indigenous Round.

